This thread discusses the Content article: The Gospels of Kadath

I really like this story. This was the first piece of original fiction submitted to Mythos Tomes, and it got us off to a great start. Any chance of another story, Lauren?

Thanks! There sure is a chance of more to come. Any suggestions?

I'd love to see something much longer. something set in the dim mists of time and could be used as filler for a good tome prop.
